

The 125th RCKC Colloquium

Development of Copyright in China and Its Impact on the Library

Speaker Dr. Wei Jingzhu, Ph.D.

School of Information Management (SIM),
National Sun Yat-sen University

Date August 3rd. 2015 (Mon.) 13:30 - 14:30

Venue Meeting room 7B310 on the 3rd floor of 7B bldg. in Kasuga Area, University of Tsukuba

Abstract

In this presentation, there will be a comprehensive introduction of history and intellectual property legislation system in China, patent law, trademark law and especially copyright law, etc.. The presentation will focus on development of copyright system in China and its principles, works protected, authorship, duration, limitations and so on. Moreover, the lecturer will discuss the relationship between copyright and libraries and copyright issues aroused in modern libraries in China.

Biography

Wei Jingzhu, Ph.D, associate professor & assistant dean of School of Information Management (SIM), Sun Yat-sen University, Guangzhou, P.R. China. She is the director of Big Data Research Center of SIM and research fellow of Intellectual Property Advanced Research Center of Wuhan University. She serves as the executive member of the council and secretary of the Chinese Social Science Information Association, vice secretary of Guangdong Social Science Information Association, consultant expert of Conghua city of Guangdong Province, and review expert of several academic journals of LIS, such as Library and Information Service, Library Forum, etc.. She has in charge of more than 10 research fund projects and has been awarded first prize of Guangdong Social Science Research Achievement at the year of 2015.

※The seminar will be presented in English.

No charge to participate and No reservation is needed.

Anyone is welcome !

Research Center for Knowledge Communities, University of Tsukuba

<http://www.kc.tsukuba.ac.jp/index.html>

Email: kc-office@ml.cc.tsukuba.ac.jp Tel: 029-859-1524 (Ext. : 81524)

